Plenary III: Hearing from the Hill

Wednesday February 24, 2021

11:00 - 12:30 PM ET

It's been twenty years since any major change in legislation affecting the child support program and now there are two proposals making their way around Capitol Hill- the Strengthening Families for Success Act and the Child Support Works Act. Let's hear what congressional staff working on these bills have to say about how our program continues to evolve, and get their take on what moving towards equity through policy may look like for child support.
