Plenary V: Successful Engagement - Turning Policy into Action

Friday, February 7, 2020

1:30 - 3:00 PM

We all have heard at one time or another that the key to successfully assisting families gain economic security and sustainable self-sufficiency is to work collaboratively with other programs. Has the time come to stop talking and start acting? In this interactive panel discussion, you will hear how our allied agencies have come together to achieve real change, working together to overcome significant obstacles to determine how policy will and should change.

Speakers: Dr. Deborah Bergeron, Clarence Carter, Shannon Christian, Elizabeth Darling, Art Kleinschmidt, Pam Miller, Katherine Sullivan

Moderator: Scott Lekan
